

Australian Government
Department of Home Affairs

Free Interpreting Service

The Free Interpreting Service (FIS) is delivered by TIS National to help people with limited English access essential services.

The following services can register for FIS:

- Medical practitioners
- Eligible allied health professionals
- Pharmacies
- Eligible non-government organisations and charities
- Real estate agencies
- Local government authorities
- Parliamentarians
- Trade unions

Find out more at: www.tisnational.gov.au/FIS

131 450

Australian Government
Department of Home Affairs

An Australian Government funded interpreting service

The Free Interpreting Service (FIS) helps people with limited English and eligible service providers to communicate—with confidence and at no cost.

Engaging a professional and credentialed interpreter is important to support effective communication.

Accessing the FIS is easy with flexible service options:

- Phone, video or face-to-face interpreting available
- Connect to a TIS interpreter within a few minutes.

Call TIS National on 131 450 to request an interpreter or visit the website for more information.

www.tisnational.gov.au